

Anne Gordon, VWS, NEWS

Anne Gordon began private lessons at age 12, with the curator at the Hyde Estate, now the Hyde Art Museum in Glens Falls, NY. She studied art at the University of Vermont graduating with both a BS and M Ed. Anne has studied watercolor in the US and UK. She is a passionate flower gardener. She has always lived in the north country and draws her inspiration from her gardens and mountain walks. Anne's paintings are in many private and corporate collections in the US and Europe..

A full time professional artist, for the past 25 years: she makes her home in Shelburne, VT. Anne is a signature member of Vermont Watercolor Society and New England Watercolor Society.

Send Email to Anne Gordon, VWS, NEWS: akgordon@comcast.net

