Delivery of Accepted Work for NEWS Gallery Shows

Hand delivered artwork must be received during specified hours, unless arranged with the NEWS Gallery Coordinator ahead of time. (gallerymanager@newenglandwatercolorsociety.org)

Please refer to the current NEWS Gallery Schedule and Prospectus. If an artist is unable to drop off or pick up artwork on the designated date for the show, and cannot find another artist to do so, he/she may drop off artwork at the Plymouth Center for the Arts front desk up to 10 days before the designated drop off date for the show.

The artist must contact the NEWS Gallery Coordinator before doing this to ensure the safe handling of the artwork.

Likewise, an artist might also be able to pick up artwork, up to 10 days after the designated pickup date - but must also contact the NEWS Gallery Coordinator before doing so. It is up to the artist to check ahead of time with the PCA to make sure the facility is open when picking up or dropping off artwork. Artwork must be well-protected and clearly marked for the NEWS show they are entering.

Shipped works must be received prior to drop off date, have a prepaid return postage label and a NEWS@PCA form enclosed.

Please ship artwork to NEWS Gallery, 11 North St, Plymouth, MA 02360.

It is up to the artist to make sure that the PCA will be open when their artwork is due to be delivered. Paintings received on or after the scheduled drop off date will not be in the exhibit.

Paintings will be shipped back to artists after the pick-up date. Please allow a few days for volunteers to pack and ship artwork after that date.
