Yvonne Hemingway is a watercolor artist and native new englander residing in Leominster, MA. She has been working in the medium for the past 30 years and has studied with many well-known artists including Charlotte Wharton, Marjory Glick, Paul George, and the late Martin Ahearn.

Teaching others the exciting, unique qualities of watercolor has become a passion. "I enjoy helping others learn to see and express their everyday surroundings in their own unique way."

She is currently giving private watercolor instruction to students who are just beginning with the medium.
