

Stephen Holland's work is a product of an extensive career in commercial art. A Dean's list graduate of New England School of Art, he worked as a designer, illustrator, teacher and consultant. His style is described as somewhere between Homer and Hopper. He is a well-received representational painter of the colorist school. His studio is open by appointment or by chance. Please call 781.293.7395 or visit the website www.stephenholland.com

Copley Society
National Watercolor Society
American Watercolor Society
Signature Member New England Watercolor Society
North River Art Association
Plymouth Guild
Cape Cod Art Society

